Work toward Level II certification with PLS!

Discover the benefits of the Pennsylvania Standards Aligned System (SAS) approach to teaching and learning. This course meets Level II certification requirements for the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE)*. Participants will receive 45 hours of Act 48 credit.

SAS for Pennsylvania Educators™

This course prepares experienced and beginning educators with a comprehensive approach to the Standards Aligned System (SAS). Participants will explore the six elements which enhance the academic achievement of students: Clear Standards, Fair Assessments, Curriculum Framework, Instruction, Material & Resources, and Interventions.

This course will provide educators with a framework to:

- Improve student learning and academic achievement.
- Engage in comprehensive and collaborative planning related to curriculum.
- Use the SAS Portal to analyze and develop lesson plans that integrate best instructional strategies, resources, and assessment techniques.

Want to receive credit from Wilkes?

If you want to earn 3 hours of graduate credit from Wilkes University, there is an additional fee of $230 for the onsite course or $295 for the online course.

Take class online or onsite

For more information about the online course, visit: www.PLSweb.com/SASonline.

For more information about the onsite course, visit: www.PLSweb.com/SAS11.

**Educators who were issued instructional certificates after September 22, 2007, and have not completed all Level II coursework prior to September 1, 2011 will be required to earn at least six post-baccalaureate credits in the areas of Inclusive Classroom or Standard Aligned Systems in order to meet the requirements for conversion to Level II.*
